

The MultiLADA Lab
– University of Warsaw, Poland and Oslo Metropolitan University, Norway – invites you to the online conference:

Polish, Norwegian or both: attempts at large-scale studies on language and cognitive development. Findings and challenges

This is a closing conference for the PolkaNorski project.

The conference aims to bring together researchers and professionals studying and working with linguistic and psycholinguistic aspects of the mono- and bilingual upbringing of Polish, Norwegian and Polish-Norwegian children.

The PolkaNorski team will present the results of their five core studies and two external experts: Natalia Kartushina (University of Oslo) and Hanne Gram Simonsen (University of Oslo) will discuss the results.

Natalia Kartushina will deliver keynote talk “Early language development in Norwegian infants” and Karolina Muszyńska (University of Warsaw) will deliver keynote talk “Every word counts - can we study early language development in monolingual and multilingual settings with a mobile app?”, both extending the results obtained by the PolkaNorski project.

The conference will provide a virtual space for discussing relevant theoretical and practical issues.

TIME: Thursday, 14.03.2024; 10.00 am - 4.30 pm (CET)

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION: 7th of March 2024. There is no registration fee, registration is required for the secure distribution of the link to the online event (on the ZOOM platform).

Please register here

The full programme of the conference will be available soon at the project website.

The language of the conference is English.